

Hello everyone,

Unfortunately due to the weather we didn't see a single TVR in the car park at the December meet, Kev did however try to come in the Sagaris but after he couldn't get off his drive, gave it up as a bad job and then spent the next 15minues trying to get it back in the garage. Thanks for the effort Kev and to everyone who did make the meet.

The event for February is the Ten Pin Bowling evening on the 20th – if you haven't got your name down for this yet please let me know as we can't have Andy Spooner winning for the 3rd year on the trot and you'll miss out on a right good laugh!

Another event happening in February is the 40th birthday of one Lisa Hall!
Happy Birthday and congratulations Lisa. She doesn't look a day over 39 to me !

We have also decided the weekend away in March will be 5th to 8th March and we are revisiting the spectacular Shropshire county again, staying at Comberemere Abbey. Full details and prices are on the regions web-site and forum. Hopefully the weather will be better than the last time we where there.

That's all for this month folks,
Take care out there .
Bye for now,
Zoe.
