

History was made in February 2010, no doubt people will probably be talking about it for years to come – what was it that happened do I hear you cry! Well I'll tell you. The evening started out as all of our events do..... at a bar and once all 20 participants had arrived we progressed over to the ten pin bowling area. We'd been split into 4 teams and couples had also been split so (in theory) there would be no chance of any domestics pre-empted by the phase 'now you shouldn't do it like that' but little did we know the amount of rivalry that lurks just beneath the surface of any relationship, but boy we do now! Bowling commenced and as the games progressed we all noticed that the customary scores were not being recorded by the usual suspects.

By the end of the 2nd game we were all aware that a momentous event had just happened, yes you've guess it – Andy Spooner lost!!! In fact not only did he not win but he didn't even come 2nd.

The winner of the mens trophy was John, 2nd went to Peter S, Andy S was 3rd and in 4th place was Kevin. The ladies title was retained for the 2nd year by Lisa, hot on her heels was Jean in 2nd place, followed in 3rd by Natalie and in 4th was Jen.

The evening did not finish there, we had intended to eat at the bowling venue but after a quick review of the menu and surroundings it was decided we should make alternative arrangements so after the trophy presentations 10 cars headed out into the local area to find somewhere that would cater for 20 people at 9:45pm! Not an easy task you'd think but as we'd all voted for a Chinese it turned out to be easier than initially thought. A huge Thanks goes to the Hong Kong restaurant in St Neots for rising to the challenge and feeding us with a fantastic buffet meal.

The next event on the radar is the Chatsworth gathering at the end of April and we'll no doubt be arranging a convoy up so let me know if you want to be part of it.

Don't forget to keep checking the web-site and the regional forum to get the latest event details and information.

Bye for now,
Zoe.
