

Hello everyone,

May seemed to definitely be the best month so far for the weather! Typical the finest weekend of the year and I was stuck inside an exhibition hall, however I'm pleased to note that my absence didn't deter any of you enjoying yourselves. In fact a large group headed over to sunny Aldeburgh for the fish'n'chip run, quite a few of the 'usual suspects' made it along as well as newcomer Pete in his 4.0 Griffith. From all the accounts that I've heard it was a great drive out and I know that Trevor would like to thank Nicky for his wonderful birthday cake!

By the time you read this we'll be packed and ready to go to Le Mans for the 24 hour Classic, and the BSG will be fully organised (as I'm writing this it's still May so I know I'm being optimistic but hey that's the type of girl I am) So if you haven't purchased your entrance tickets for the BSG by now you'd better hurry as there's only a few weeks to go and I wouldn't want you to miss out on what is going to be one of the best events of the year!

That's all for this month, so take care out there, till next time,
Zoe.
